

This new ruling will have a major impact on non-profit trade associations. Sending out broadcast fax messages to our members is the most efficient way to keep them abreast of membership opportunities, including advertising in association publications to promote their businesses. We ask that you continue to exempt non-profit membership organizations from these new requirements. Thank you for your consideration.